But a few years after the queen died because of a disease. Then, the father married again with one of the most beautiful woman of the kingdom.

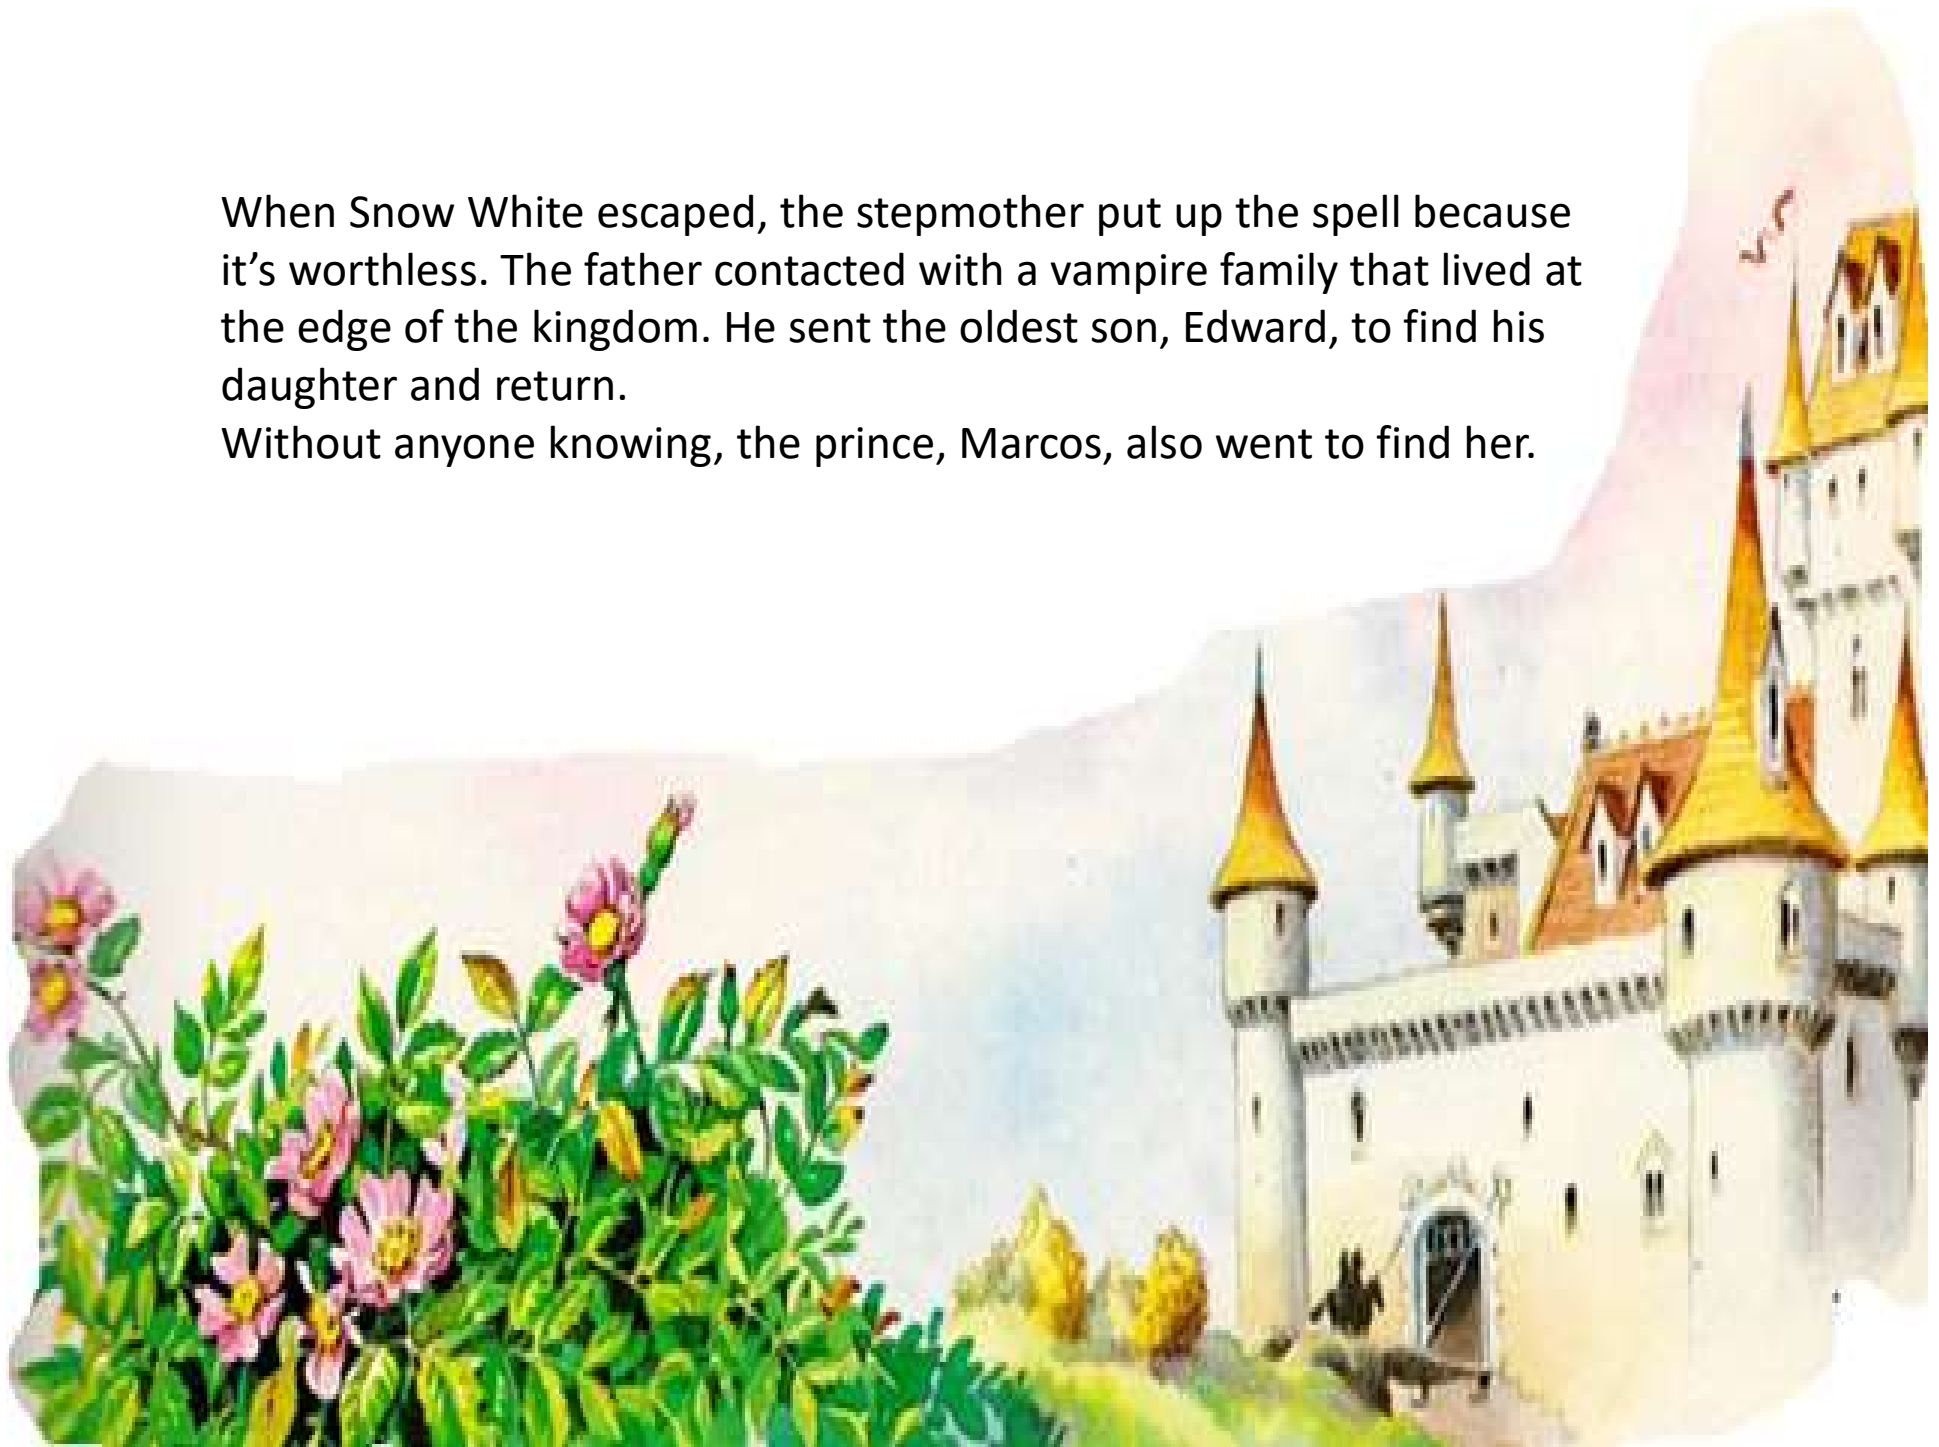

At the beginning, the stepmother was very nice with everyone and she was like a mother to Snow White. When she obtained all the family trust her, she became a bad person. One day, the stepmother cast a spell on her husband and ordered him to kill his daughter. Snow White finally escaped and went to the forest.

But she didn't know that the forest was "The enchanted forest"...

When Snow White escaped, the stepmother put up the spell because it's worthless. The father contacted with a vampire family that lived at the edge of the kingdom. He sent the oldest son, Edward, to find his daughter and return.

Without anyone knowing, the prince, Marcos, also went to find her.

The stepmother hid in a tower far away from the kingdom because the king wanted to kill her.

Meanwhile, Edward found Snow White. She explained him what her father tried to do. Then, he escaped with her and they hid in a house in the middle of the forest. Marcos found them and stayed with them.

Marcos and Edward went to get some food and Snow White stayed in the house. The stepmother, with an old appearance found her and poisoned her with a pineapple. The vampire killed her.

The spell would only break with a real love kiss. The prince kissed her first but it didn't work. Then, the vampire kissed her as a goodbye.
